

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

Suren Das College, Hajo, Kamrup, Assam

Program Outcomes, Program Specific Outcomes & Course Outcomes

NON-CBCS course under Gauhati University

Program Outcomes (POs)

Department of Political Science	(After Completion of the course, the students will be able to)
Program Outcomes (POs)	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1.To be eligible for employment in teaching, civil services, media, tourism and other industries.2.To have better understanding of the literary and cultural diversity and to think critically about the issues of contemporary relevance.3.To develop social and political consciousness and to be up to date with the contemporary developments.

Course Outcomes (Cos)

FIRST SEMESTER

Course (Major)	Course Objectives	Course Outcomes
Paper I Political Theory.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This course introduces the students to the idea of Political Theory, its importance and usefulness of political theory. ➤ It introduces students about the concepts and various forms of power. ➤ This course deals with certain relevant political ideologies and also interrogates the ‘end of ideology’ debates. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ The paper remains useful for students in understanding and developing ideas on political theory, which is helpful in providing theoretical insights and perspectives to students. ➤ The paper has utility for students preparing for competitive exams.
Paper II Politics in India.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper intends to introduce students about the evolution of Indian constitution and it also talks about various colonial legacies and movements which plays a very important role in the evolution of constitution. ➤ This paper also introduces students to the basic features of constitution. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper remains useful for students in understanding and developing ideas on Indian politics. ➤ It has utility for students preparing for civil service exams like UPSC, APSC etc.
Course (General)	Course Objectives	Course Outcomes
Political Theory I	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper introduces the students to the idea of political theory and major approaches to 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper remains useful for students in developing key ideas on political theory and in understanding key aspects of

	the study of Political Science. ➤ It also introduces students to the major concepts in Political Theory and major perspectives on state.	conceptual analysis in political theory.
--	--	---

SECOND SEMESTER

Course (Major)	Course Objectives	Course Outcomes
Paper I Political Theory II	➤ This course aims to introduce certain key aspects of conceptual analysis in political theory. ➤ It also introduces students to the meaning and different Perspectives of Development and it also aims to study political theory in the context of Third World.	➤ This paper remains useful for students in understanding various issues relating to political theory.
Paper II Politics in India II	➤ This paper introduces the students about the center-state relations, Party systems as well as Election system in India. ➤ It also focuses on various challenges like Terrorism, Casteism etc. which are regarded as major challenges towards national integration.	➤ This paper helps students in understanding Democracy or Democratic process in India. ➤ It also helpful for students preparing for Competitive exams like civil services.
Course (General)	Course Objectives	Course Outcomes

Political Theory II	➤ This paper aims to introduce students about the concept of ideology, meaning of democracy as well as meaning and views on development.	➤ It will help the students in understanding various ideologies as well as various theories of Democracy. ➤ This paper will help the students in creating consciousness about Sustainable Development.
-----------------------------------	---	--

THIRD SEMESTER

Course (Major)	Course Objectives	Course Outcomes
Paper I International Relations - I	➤ This paper intends to introduce students to basic concepts issues and approaches in the study of International Relations.	➤ The paper remains useful for students in understanding basic concepts of International Relations. ➤ It also helps students in pursuing research programme in the area of International Relations.
Paper II Public Administration I	➤ This paper intends to introduce students to the basic concepts as well as importance of Public Administration.	➤ It will enable students to learn basic concepts of public administration and the importance of

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ It also introduces the major theories of public administration (e.g., Scientific Management theory, Bureaucratic Theory, Human Relations Theory etc.). 	Public Administration. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Students will be able to learn major theories of Public Administration. ➤ It will help students to learn about the differences between public and private administration. ➤ Students will learn about professional ethics and values.
Course(General)	Course Objectives	Course Outcomes
Paper I International Relations - I	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper intends to introduce students to evolution, nature, scope and approaches to the study of International Relations. ➤ It also introduces students about the causes, consequence and impact of Second World War as well as Cold War. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper remains useful for students in developing a basic understanding about the discipline of International Relations.
Paper II Politics In India - I	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper intends to introduce students about the evolution of Indian Constitution and also talks about various colonial legacies and movements which plays a very important role in the evolution of the Constitution of India. ➤ It also introduces students to the basic features of constitution as well as the nature of Indian Constitution. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper remains useful or students in understanding and developing ideas on Indian Politics. ➤ It has utility for students preparing for Civil Service exams.

FOURTH SEMESTER

Course (Major)	Course Objectives	Course Outcomes
Paper I International Relations - II	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper intends to introduce students about basic concepts and issues in the study of International Relations. ➤ It also focuses on the role of International Organizations like UNO and it also introduce students about diverse perspectives that make the understanding of the concepts like Globalization. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper remains useful for students in developing basic understanding about International Relations. ➤ It also helps students in pursuing higher studies in the area of International Relations.
Paper – II Public Administration – II	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper introduces students to the concepts of personal administration and it also focuses on the role of or importance of Civil Services in Modern State. ➤ It also introduces students to the concepts and principles of budgeting as well as the budgetary process. ➤ It also introduces students to the concept of Development Administration. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Students will learn about the importance of civil service in modern times. ➤ Students will understand the concept of financial administration and the process of Budgeting. ➤ Students will be able to analyze administration in the third world countries and the role of bureaucracy in development. ➤ This paper has utility for students preparing for civil service exams.

Course(General)	Course Objectives	Course Outcomes
Paper I International Relations - II	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper aims to introduce students about basic concepts (like: Foreign Policy and Diplomacy) of International Relations. ➤ It also focuses on International Organizations like UNO (its formation, objectives etc.), W.T.O, World Bank, IMF as well as the importance of Disarmament and Arms Control. 	*This paper is useful for students in developing a basic understanding about the discipline of International Relations.
Paper – II Politics in India II	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper aims to introduce students about the nature of Parliamentary Govt in India as well as the judicial system in India. ➤ It also focuses on the nature of political parties as well as the role of pressure groups in India. 	➤ This paper remains useful for students in understanding the structure or nature of Indian govt as well as Judicial system that prevails in India.

FIFTH SEMESTER

Course(Major)	Course Objectives	Course Outcomes
Paper – I Western Political Thinkers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper intends to introduce students to the texts, thinkers and thought in western political tradition. ➤ It seeks to develop new insights among 	➤ This paper remains useful for students in developing ideas on politics which is helpful in providing theoretical insights and perspectives to

	students on the relevance of political ideas in understanding the crisis, change and continuity that marks the study of Contemporary Politics.	students if they wish to pursue research programme. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper has utility for students preparing for competitive exams like civil services.
Paper –II Select Constitutions -I	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper aims to introduce students about concept of constitution and its meaning, as well as it also intends to introduce students about the constitution of UK and USA in a comparative way. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper remains useful for students in developing a comparative study of different political systems. ➤ It has utility for students preparing for competitive exams.
Paper III General Sociology - I	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper is an elective paper that intends to introduce students to the meaning, definitions and growth of Sociology as a discipline. ➤ It also introduces students about different methods of Sociology (Historical, Scientific methods) as well as the key concepts of Sociology (e.g., family, society etc.). 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper remains useful for students in developing a basic understanding about the discipline of Sociology. ➤ It will help students in pursuing higher studies on Sociology. ➤ It will help students in studying society in a scientific way.
Paper IV Contemporary Political Issues	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper intends to introduce students to the issues relating to environment. ➤ It also focuses on Terrorism, its meaning and nature, as well as Terrorism in North East India. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper remains useful for students in understanding contemporary political issues like: Environmental issues, Terrorism, Issues relating to gender etc.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper intends to introduce students to the issues of Gender and Gender Justice.
Paper v Political Sociology I	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper is an elective paper that intends to introduce students to the nature of political sociology. ➤ It also focuses on the concepts like Political culture, Socialization etc. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper remains useful for students in developing a basic understanding about the subject of Political sociology.
Paper VI Human Rights	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper introduces students to the concept and Growth or evolution of human rights. ➤ It introduces students about the various approaches and perspectives on Human Rights. ➤ It also focuses on the role of NGOS (e g Amnesty International, Human Rights Watch etc) relating to human rights. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ The students will be able to learn the concept of Human Rights and its relevance in Contemporary society. ➤ They will be able to analyze various approaches and perspectives on Human Rights and learn about various instruments and documents relating to Human Rights ➤ Have an understanding about the rights of the marginalized and vulnerable sections.
Course(General)	Course Objectives	Course Outcomes
Paper I Public Administration –I	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper intends to introduce students to the basic concepts as well as importance of Public Administration. ➤ It also introduces the major theories of 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ It will enable students to learn basic concepts of public administration and the importance of Public Administration.

	public administration (e.g.: Scientific Management theory, Bureaucratic Theory, Human Relations Theory etc.).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Students will be able to learn major theories of Public Administration. ➤ It will help students to learn about the differences between public and private administration. ➤ Students will learn about professional ethics and values.
Paper II Select Constitution - I	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper intends to introduce students about meaning and concepts of Constitution as well as it also focuses on Constitutions of two different countries (UK and USA). 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper remains useful for students in developing a comparative study about different political systems.

SIXTH SEMESTER

Course(Major)	Course Objectives	Course Outcomes
Paper I Indian Political Thinkers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This course introduces the specific elements of Indian Political Thought. The basic focus of study is on individual thinkers whose ideas are however framed by specific themes. ➤ The course as whole is meant to provide a sense of the broad streams of Indian thought while encouraging a specific knowledge of 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ To underline themes and issues in political traditions of Pre-Colonial India. ➤ To compare and contrast positions of different political traditions whose were present in Pre-Colonial India. ➤ To evaluate the relevance of political thought of Pre-Colonial India for contemporary politics.

	individual thinkers and texts.
Paper II Select Constitution II	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper intends to introduce students about the structure of govt of China and Switzerland through a comparative study of their constitutions. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper remains useful for students in understanding structure of govt that prevails in China and Switzerland. ➤ It will help students in preparing for competitive exams.
Paper III General Sociology III	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper aims to introduce students about the meaning and evolution of culture, it also introduces students to the concept of social control, its meaning, nature and means of social control. ➤ It also focuses on the process of socialization as well as the factors and agencies of socialization (e.g.: family) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper remains useful for students in developing a basic understanding about the core actors of sociology. ➤ It will help students in studying society from a Sociological perspective.
Paper IV Contemporary Political Ideologies	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper intends to introduce students to the contemporary political ideologies like Neo liberalism, Feminism, Religious fundamentalism as well as Multiculturalism. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper remains useful in understanding the contemporary political ideologies. ➤ It will help the students in developing a basic understanding about the meaning and nature of these cotemporary political ideologies.
Paper V Political Sociology II	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper aims to introduce students to the different theories of political power and nature of political 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper remains useful in understanding the basic themes or ideas of Political Sociology.

	change and political development. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ It also focuses on the relationships between Bureaucracy, society and politics.
Paper VI Human Rights in India	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper introduces students to the origin and development of Human Rights in India. ➤ It also focuses on the institutional mechanisms (like National Human Rights Commission, National commission for Women etc.) for protection of Human Rights. ➤ This paper also introduces students to the Human Rights of Vulnerable groups. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ The students will be able to learn about the origin and evolution of Human Rights in India. ➤ Demonstrate a good understanding of the nature and scope of the legislation dealing with protection of Human Rights. ➤ Students will be able to analyze the issues relating to Human Rights which have arisen in contemporary times.
Course (General)	Course Objectives	Course Outcomes
Paper I Public Administration II	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ This paper introduces students to the concepts of personal administration and it also focuses on the role of or importance of Civil Services in Modern State. ➤ It also introduces students to the concepts and principles of budgeting as well as the budgetary process. ➤ It also introduces students to the concept of Development Administration. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Students will learn about the importance of civil service in modern times. ➤ Students will understand the concept of financial administration and the process of Budgeting. ➤ Students will be able to analyze administration in the third world countries and the role of bureaucracy in development. ➤ This paper has utility for students preparing for civil service exams.

Paper II Select Constitution II	➤ This paper intends to introduce students about the structure of government of China and Switzerland through a comparative study of their constitutions.	➤ This paper has utility for students in developing a comparative study of different constitutions.
--	---	---